Greek Island Odyssey

For stunning crystal clear sea, picture postcard beaches and fascinating culture and sights the Greek Islands are hard to beat. We've hand-picked some extra special resorts definitely worth seeking out.

FORTUNE & LIFESTYLE

Cavo Spada Resort & Spa

Following renovations and a complete redecoration, the stylish wellness resort, Cavo Spada Resort & Spa is an extraordinary destination, set to be one of Crete's most exciting hotels this year. Stepping inside this 5-star beachfront resort, the buzzy atmosphere and chic surroundings make strong first impressions. Sporting clean lines and a striking, minimalistic design, the bright and airy rooms of this 150 room resort exudes a cool and calming feel.

Room options range from Deluxe Doubles to family suites with pools, all offering spectacular views onto the wide swath of a milky white beachfront. And learning holiday seekers will find nirvana. Holding weekly wine and olive oil tasting classes, cooking lessons and cultural concerts, every stay at Cavo Spada is an immersion into the spectacular Cretan culture. The resort's wellness facilities are also a big part of the appeal. On top of the tranquil spa, with its hydro-massage facilities, Turkish Bath and extensive range of 'Ultimate Facial' treatments for both men and women, the beautiful seaside and the evergreen gardens are ideal for private yoga lessons.
